HISTORY OF FLINT HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

Flint Hill Baptist Church is in her 87th year of ministry for Jesus Christ in this community. The church was organized at the Flint Hill School on August 27, 1909 when worship was held under a brush arbor and inside the school house. Brethren from sister churches formed a Presbytery to organize Flint Hill Baptist Church.

The church's first building was erected around 1910 with approximately 105 members. Since that time three other buildings have been built. The present building was readied for worship at an approximate cost of $600,000. The first church building stood on a half-acre site that was donated to the church by Virgil Weaver. Presently the church owns approximately twenty-eight acres of land, with twenty-one being developed for outdoor recreation and ministry.

Flint Hill Baptist Church has experienced steady growth throughout her history. Currently, the church has a total membership of 656 and an operating budget of $223,678.12. The commitment to providing effective ministry took another step as the members committed $294,000 above their tithes and offerings over a three year period to begin construction of a new education wing to the present facility. This new building would consist of classrooms, choir room, senior adult room and fellowship hall.

Flint Hill also has a growing concern for missions. As a result of this growing concern, the church has doubled its mission giving in the last ten years and in 1994 gave in excess of $35,000 to mission causes.

Rev. Keith Dixon serves as the nineteenth pastor of Flint Hill Baptist Church and recently observed his tenth anniversary in that capacity. Mrs. Doreen Wacaster is the minister of music and Jason Kerr serves as part-time minister of youth and children.

HISTORY OF SANDY PLAINS BAPTIST CHURCH

Sandy Plains Baptist Church began in a brush arbor meeting on the Chancey Grigg Farm in the New House community. It was constituted as a church on March 24th, 1854 with twenty-seven charter members. The church became a member of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association that same year. In 1856, Zion Hill Church petitioned to unite with Sandy Plains and was received into fellowship.

Services were originally held on a monthly basis in the one room log structure. The original structure was replaced in 1877 and the present sanctuary was constructed in 1912, with several additions and remodeling since that date.

From its earliest beginnings, Sandy Plains was aware of Christ's summons to go into all the world and make disciples. A church mission program was organized in 1871. From that date forward, this church has been in continuous support of our North Carolina Baptist agencies and has enthusiastically supported both the Cooperative Program and the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship since the dates they were formed. We are equally pleased to be part of the ministries of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Believing that all of the above have proven through their labors to be committed to Christ and His church, we are honored to be associated with each of them and count them as our indispensable partners in doing His work.

The current pastor is especially pleased to note the valuable contributions of our women in ministry. Currently, three of our deacons, our music minister, our Sunday School director, and other key leadership positions are filled by women in response to Christ's call in the use of their God-given gifts and talents.

Dr. Donald McSwain serves as pastor, Mrs. Joy Harris is music minister, and Mrs. Donnis Walker is Sunday School director. The current membership is 401.

Attendance cards were collected at this time.
8. Rev. Steve Zimmerman, minister of education at First, Shelby, and associational Sunday School director, gave his report. He encouraged participation in the training events for 1996. He introduced the ASSISTeam members. Those present were: Evelyn Bridges, Jerry Welch, Joe Collins and "Chip" Sloan.
9. Rev. Glenn Walker, pastor of Double Springs Church and Discipleship Training Supporter, gave his report. He stressed how we all need to be involved in an on-going training program and think about what we do for our own spiritual growth. He presented a plaque to Calvary Church for high attendance at "M" Night in 1994. He announced that we would not have "M" Night this year but will look instead at a spring training event in 1996.
10. Rev. Lawton Neely, associational music director, presented his report, gave the dates for 1996 music events, and stated he is relinquishing his position as music director to Mrs. Faithe Beam.
11. Rev. Rick Hamrick, minister of education/youth at Polkville Church and chairman of the associational youth committee, presented the youth ministry report. He also gave the dates for upcoming 1996 youth events.

12. Rev. Leland Kerr called attention to the printed information on our World Missions Conference scheduled for May 18-21, 1997. We viewed a ten-minute video on what a World Missions Conference is about. Leland stated that Rev. Charles Reed, church and community ministries director, will assist him in preparing for this event.
13. Rev. Bonnie Doughtie, church development director, presented her report. She stated our task in helping to develop churches and members is to help them feel or experience God. She must constantly challenge herself in order to challenge or help others. Another task is to cultivate the many talents and abilities within our church family. Training is a part of assisting people to develop. She reported that 586 people from forty-nine of our churches were involved in training in August at CPR (Challenging People to Renew) at First Baptist, Shelby. She expressed thanks to all involved in this event. She stated we will seek to do CPR every three years and let each organization do their individaul training the other two years. Our next CPR training event will be August 31 and September 1, 1998.
14. Mrs. Ladell Shields, minister of music/education/youth at Beaver Dam Church, led the congregation in singing, "So Send I You."
15. Rev. Bruce Rabon, director of Church Relations, from Gardner-Webb University, brought greetings from the university. He reported the largest enrollment in their 90-year history. They have 2,518 enrolled with 1,300 on campus. They have 102 students in the school of divinity. Gardner-Webb is thankful for the opportunity of "dabling" in the lives of these young people and for helping shape their destiny.
16. Rev. Russell Fitts, chairman of the Membership Committee, presented his report and recommended that Christ Covenant Church be accepted into full membership in our association. The motion was seconded by John Houze and carried. Rev. Jim Toole and several members who were present for the meeting were asked to come forward. Rev. Toole expressed appreciation to Kings Mountain Baptist Association and Gardner-Webb University for their support to Christ Covenant Church.
17. The Kings Mountain Baptist Association Ministers of Music Ensemble presented our special music for the evening. The group included Doreen Wacaster, Beth Hefner, Ladell Shields, Faithe Beam, Bob Dills, Chris Roberts, Lawton Neely, and Larry King. They sang "Boundless Love" and "Here I Am, Lord" and were accompanied on the piano by Angela Zimmerman.
18. Dr. John "Chip" Sloan, pastor of First Baptist, Kings Mountain presented the annual sermon. He shared various scripture passages including Ephesians 5:22, Genesis 22:1-2, 24:67. He spoke on areas of renewal. 1. Honor for the church. You cannot honor Christ if you do not honor the church. If there is going to be renewal. then we need to clean up our tongues of criticism of our church. 2. Love for the Lord. We are the bride of the church. God wants love from us. In our worship God wants us to sing and talk to Him not just about Him. 3. Submission to the Lord. We need to pursue His will, not our goals and ambitions. We need God ruling our church. 4. Be ready for His coming. Jesus went to prepare a place for us and we should be preparing ourselves to meet Him. We need to renew ourselves, rid ourselves of all negatives, submit to Him, go where He wants us to go and be mindful that one day the Lord is coming back for His church.
19. Moderator Jim Brackett came forward at this time and asked for a silent time of commitment.
20. Mr. Jason Kerr, minister of youth at Flint Hill Church, pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON
OCTOBER 24, 1995

21. As messengers and visitors gathered outside at Sandy Plains Church Outdoor Shelter for the second session of our annual meeting, special music was presented by Mrs. Mary Ruth Packard and a men's quartet from Sandy Plains Church accompanied by Mrs. Debbie Wray on the piano.
22. Dr. Don McSwain, pastor of our host church, Sandy Plains, welcomed everyone. Rev. Larry King, associate pastor and minister of music and youth at Westview, led the congregation in singing, "Praise Him!," as our opening hymn. Scripture from Matthew 25: 35-40 was read by Rev. Marvin Gobble of Zoar Church and the opening prayer was led by Rev. Vincent Hefner of Second Baptis in Shelby.
23. The Nominating Committee report was given by Rev. Ralph Sparrow of Oak View. The following nominations for 1996 were presented:

    Moderator ..... Mrs. Mary Lou Causby
    Vice-moderator ..... Rev. Keith Dixon
    Clerk-treasurer ..... Ms. Recca Bingham

    There were no nominations from the floor. These were voted on and approved.
24. Rev. Paul Williams, pastor of Lawndale Church, gave the Committee on Committee report. He thanked the committee for all their work in filling all but three of the 130 positions for next year. Rev. Williams moved the adoption of this report. The report was voted on and approved.
24. Moderator Jim Brackett then recognized Rev. Sam Snyder, retired pastor, to give a report from the Baptist Retirement Homes. Rev. Snyder encouraged us to support the retirement homes through our prayers and through the offering. Last year our association gave $5,152.67 to this special offering. The statewide goal for 1996 is $425,000. Two new projects are underway. A new home is being constructed in Fayetteville and in partnership with the Presbyterian Homes, we will provide in-home care for older adults so that they can remain in their own homes.
26. Mrs. Priscilla Wray, associational WMU Director, reported the WMU has been very busy this year with "lots" of training here in our association and at Ridgecrest. This training has helped us with all the changes in WMU and has been good to get us more involved in missions. Mrs. Wray and Mrs. Evelyn Jackson presented a skit emphasizing the differences in the years of 1915 and 1995. This showed us how much things have changed in our world in the past 80 years but one thing remains the same and that is GOD.
27. The Christian Life report was given by Dr. Jim Richardson, pastor of Poplar Springs Church. He said that the purpose of this committee is to help our churches become more aware of the modern issues that effect Christian living such as illegal use of drugs and pornography. Our goal is to have a Christian Life Committee in every church of our association.
28. Ms. Recca Bingham, our clerk-treasurer, gave the Executive Board report. She mentioned that the scripture instructs us to pray, to work and to give. She encouraged each church to send representatives to our Executive Board meetings so that the church may be informed as to what is happening in our associational work. Ms. Bingham also presented the treasurers report for January - September 1995. These reports were voted on and approved.
29. Rev. J.C. Goare gave the Memorials report and led a prayer in memory of those we have lost this past year.

30. Mrs. Faithe Beam, minister of music, education, and youth at Zion Church, led the congregation in singing, "Blessed Assurance."
31. Vice-moderator Mary Lou Causby gave the Missions Committee report. She stated that although the way we do missions has changed the Story of Jesus is the same as it was in the beginning. Our partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association in New York continues as we had another mission trip to New York this past summer to minister and to help build the associational office. We have recently learned that some Acteens from New York want to come to our area soon to share with us as we have shared with them. Mrs. Causby stated that we are pleased to have our missionaries-in-residence as we have three at the present time: M/M James Russell, M/M Rob Hefner and Miss Elizabeth Oates. Rev. Yasuaki Fugunaga from Japan has come to our area this year to work with and learn from our churches in the youth ministry and in music ministry areas. Rev. Fugunaga is also ministering to the Japanese students at Gardner-Webb University. Mrs. Causby ask that we be in prayer for our pending mission partnerships with Japan and South Africa. She ask that we look over the calendar for next year and pointed out the change in the dates for the Chemical Dependency Conference at Gardner-Webb to July 15-16, 1996 and Chris Roberts, minister of music at Boiling Springs Church mentioned that the NC Music Conference at Caraway is January 15-17, 1996. The association voted to enter into a partnership with South Africa and Japan.
32. Rev. Leland Kerr, our director of missions, gave an update on our New York partnership. He expressed thanks from New York and from our association to all those who have supported this partnership through their prayers and financial support. Special thanks to all who have given of their time and energy to go to New York. Between 30 and 35 of our churches were involved. The membership of the entire Greater Rochester Baptist Association is about 800. We have some churches with larger memberships so we are compelled by our blessings to help these churches. A group from Christopher Road Church has just returned from New York where they helped with the completion of the building of the 1200 square foot associational office. Our churches have donated about $19,000 for this building project. We will continue this partnership as long as the need is there.
33. The 1996 budget was presented by Mr. Jim Hope, chairman of the Finance Committee. He noted that the budget cuts in Church and Community Ministries are due to the fact that we receive funding from such sources as Duke Power Foundation, the Dover Foundation, Home Mission Board and designated gifts from churches and individuals. He moved the adoption of this new budget. There were no comments or questions. This was voted on and approved.
34. Mrs. Jack (Cathy) Ollis, missionary to Singapore, spoke to us about her experiences on the mission field and about her work here at Gardner-Webb University in helping form a World A Resource Center to open in January of 1996. Rob and Phyllis Hefner, missionaries to Brazil, shared with us how God IS working in our world today. The Hefners gave special thanks to Patterson Grove Church for "adopting" them. Moderator Jim Brackett asked Rev. Jim Richardson to lead a time of special prayer for all our missionaries.
35. Dr. Wyan Washburn, our associational historian, gave his report. He asked that we read his written report at home. Director of Missions Leland Kerr presented a plaque to Dr. Washburn for serving as historian 1958 to 1995.

36. Special music was presented by Leland Kerr on the bass, Lawton Neely on the banjo, and Jason Kerr on the guitar with the congregation singing along on several favorite old hymns.
37. Rev. Charles Reed, Church and Community Ministries director, gave his report. He stated that he has completed five years of service here in KMBA. The World Mission conference dates for our association is May 18-21, 1997 and our churches can and should be involved. Participating churches can have five services involving 2 home, 2 foreign and 1 state missionary. Rev. Reed mentioned that this year's Christmas Toy Store will be dedicated to the memory of J.W. Gantt, volunteer who has been an important part of the Toy Stores in the past. Rev. Reed thanked Jennifer Ollis, daughter of M/M Jack Ollis, who served as CCM Summer Worker this summer.
38. Rev. Leland Kerr thanked Sandy Plains for hosting us today and thanked Paul Setzer for providing the sound equipment. Dr. Don McSwain, pastor of our host church, gave directions and thanks for our evening meal.

Tuesday Evening
October 24, 1995

39. At 7:00 p.m. as messengers and visitors gathered for the evening session, special music was presented by Sandy Plains Music Ministry under the direction of Mrs. Joy Harris, church music director. They were accompanied by Ms. Debbie Wray, pianist and Suzanne Gibbs, organist.
40. Mr. Bruce Wilson, minister of music at Lawndale church, led the congregation in singing, "Victory in Jesus." We were accompanied at the piano by Rev. Chris Roberts, minister of music at Boiling Springs Church.
41. Rev. Terry Bird, pastor of Patterson Grove Church, read scripture from Psalm 51: 10-12 and led the opening prayer for the session.

Dave Gordon, New Hope Church; Mrs. Mona Scism, Patterson Grove Church; Mrs. Mickie Burgin, Lattimore Church; Mr. John Rudasill, Union Church; Mrs. Mary Coker, Christopher Road Church; and Rev. Chad Harvey, New Prospect Church.
46. Mr. Barry Coker, layman from Christopher Road and chairman of Evangelism Committee, gave his report. He asked for counselors for the upcoming toy store and next year's Rescue '96. He reported 1500 people attended "Toy Maker's Dream" with forty-four decisions made. He announced a Billy Graham Crusade will be held September 26-29, 1996 at the Panther stadium in Charlotte.

47. Our Director of Missions Leland Kerr gave his annual report. He expressed appreciation to our host churches Sandy Plains and Flint Hill as well as to the entire Lattimore group of churches. Pertaining to our association, he spoke on who we are, how the association helps churches, who does the work, where the money comes from, why we do what we do. Rev. Kerr shared a few of his dreams with us: (1) Partnership Missions, (2) Associational Drama Team, (3) Christian Counseling Ministry, and (4) Missions Investment Fellowship. These are discussed further in his printed report. He spoke also on what it means to be associated, that he is burdened that some of our churches are not really associated, and that his goal is to bridge relationships and strive to bring our churches together as an association.
48. Rev. Larry King, associate pastor and minister of music/youth of Westview Church; Mrs. Faithe Beam, minister of music/youth/education of Zion Church; Rev. Chris Roberts, minister of music of Boiling Springs Church; and Mrs. Joy Harris, minister of music of Sandy Plains sang "Spirit of the Living God." Mrs. Faithe Beam continued to lead the congregation in a number of hymns and choruses.
49. Missionary-In-Residence Elizabeth Oates, on furlough from Brazil, expressed thanks for prayers for all the missionaries and gifts to Cooperative Program and Lottie Moon offering. She shared about her work in Brazil and how great the need is to reach people and begin new work there. They also have a great need for training lay people to work in various ministries.
50. The Westview Quartet presented our special music for the evening. The group included: Rev. Larry King, Mark Fitzgerald, Marla Bralley, and Amelia Raines. They were accompanied by Carolyn Clatfelter, pianist.
51. Rev. Jim Brackett brought the moderator's message. Selected scripture passages included: Ephesians 1:3-4, 7, 13-14 and John 14:6. He asked what it is that calls us together and stated it is not enough just to be together, no matter how large the crowd, we must be together in the presence of God. We were chosen by God in love and elected by His love for service. He urged us to look into God's eyes and be captured by all that we find there.
52. Rev. Leland Kerr led us in singing, "Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus." He asked Rev. Jim Brackett to come forward and presented him with an appreciation plaque for his service as moderator of our association for 1993-1995.
53. Rev. Leland Kerr asked that our new associational officers come forward for an installation service. He passed the gavel to Mrs. Mary Lou Causby, our new moderator and stated she is the first female moderator of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.
54. Rev. Leland Kerr asked that all the associational staff gather around the associational officers. He encouraged all who would to gather around them for support and prayer. Rev. Kerr dismissed the 144th annual session of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

Note: Committee and organizational reports from these proceedings may be found elsewhere in this volume.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

We have spent much time this past year encouraging our churches to be renewed. We continue that theme through our annual meeting. We have participated in many events to help us seek renewal.

I want to highlight a few of the major events this past year that enabled us to be renewed:

Renewal Through Evangelism

1995 was the year of the Here's Hope Simultaneous Revivals. Lives were renewed and new life experienced as a result of these revivals. We are still receiving the Annual Church Profiles as I write this, but our baptisms appear to be higher this year over last year.

A recent evangelism event was the presentation of "The Masterpiece: A Toymaker's Dream." This event drew approximately 1500 people over two nights with eleven professions of faith.

Our annual youth evangelism event "Rescue" was also very successful.

Renewal Through Missions

A vital part of our ministry this year has been our partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association. This partnership continues to develop each year as more and more churches and individuals respond to the call to assist them. A total of 275 volunteers from twenty-four of our churches participated in this years mission trip to Rochester. We contributed nearly $20,000 and most of the volunteer labor to build their associational office building. We will continue this partnership next year.

Renewal Through Training

One of the most successful training events in our association's history took place in August as we held CPR - Challenging People to Renew. Nearly 600 people from forty-nine of our churches participated in this multi-program training event. This was a tremendous time of fellowship and learning.

Renewal Through Ministry

Our association has been a model for years as an example of effective ways to minister to the community. We continue to assist those in need with emergency and relief, help families provide toys for their children at Christmas, and offer hope to those who often wonder if there is hope. HOPEBUILDERS was launched in our association as an opportunity for the elderly to have vital repairs made to their homes. We continue to receive support for our ministries from our churches, individuals, other church groups, the Home Mission Board, and charitable foundations. For this we are indeed grateful.

I believe we can also find renewal as we look to the future and dream about new areas of opportunities for ministry. Let me share a few of my dreams with you.

Partnership Missions - We have the opportunity to become directly involved in two foreign missions partnerships - South Africa and Japan. I hope we will support these.

Associational Drama Team - I hope we can develop this team to serve as a resource to our churches and our partnerships in missions.

Christian Counseling Ministry - The needs are almost overwhelming in our area for Christian counseling. I urge our association to explore the possibility of providing this ministry in some way.

Missions Investment Fellowship - This would be made up of individuals who would give $100 a year to a special fund to help start new work, assist our missions partnerships, and respond to new missions opportunities.

Above all, we need to be reminded that renewal must occur in our individual lives before we ever truly understand renewal in our churches and in our association.

We need to be reminded of the words Paul wrote in Romans 12:2 "Do not comform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is - his good, pleasing and perfect will."

On the renewal journey with you,
Leland Kerr

Once again there were thirty-seven participants counting the faculty.

13. HOPEBUILDERS:

This pilot program sponsored by NC Baptist Men, Kings Mountain Baptist Association, and the Council on Aging of Cleveland County was most successful. Three low-income houses or trailers were renovated by visiting church groups from Winston-Salem and Harrisburg, NC. Local churches provided meals for the volunteers and followed up on the families who were ministered to by HOPEBUILDERS. This will be an on-going project with NC Baptist Men, the association, and agencies making referrals for repairs and renovations on low-income housing.

14. Metrolina Food Bank:

In March 1995 CCM became a member of the Metrolina Food Bank. In addition to buying privileges at the Charlotte Food Bank at greatly reduced prices, volunteers pick up meat, dairy products, and grocery items from local Food Lions daily. Churches are still needed to contribute non-perishable food items as requested in the association newsletter to provide food for those in need. We had eight volunteers who picked up food items on 132 occasions during March 1995-September 1995. A total of 13,310 pounds of salvage items were received from the Food Lion stores.

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR REPORT

Each month in The Beacon my article is entitled Bonnie's Lightlines. I chose this because I love lighthouses. Lighthouses reflect light to those who need assistance and guidance. I view my job as your Church Development Director as one who offers assistance and guidance. My report to you offers reflections on the past year as we have served the Lord together here in Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

November began with the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer as we prayed for ourselves, missionaries and others. "M" Night offered a time to reflect on Discipleship Training and we were led by Maurice Cooper. Also, during November I attended the Associational Religious Educators Update at the Baptist Sunday School Board. This is an annual event where the BSSE shares what's new and changes taking place in curriculum.

December was a time for Steve Zimmerman, Barry Coker and me to go to Rochester to do their Here's Hope training. We shared in a weekend training of pastors and lay leaders to help them prepare for Here's Hope.

January was spent with the Sunday School SSALT Training in two locations. Bad weather hindered our attendance but excellent training took place for those who braved the elements. Also, a staff ministers support group began. We meet monthly and review a book relating to education and youth ministry.

February found me at Ridgecrest for Associational Training Institute and Youth SkiTreat at the same time. The mission trip organizational meeting began in February to see who was interested in going to Rochester. I also attended the Southern Baptist Religious Educator Association meeting in Williamsburg, Virginia.

March was the time for the VBS Early Bird Clinic to prepare for "Windows on the World." Also, Rescue '95 at Gardner-Webb brought many youth and leaders out.

April was a time to be in the air and fly to Rochester along with Leland and Peter West to make plans for the mission trip.

May helped all of our leadership in the association to be trained at key leadership. Also, the youth musical was performed in two locations.

June found the Apostoloi Team (A-Team) arriving and summer plans were well on their way. Mission trip preparation was in full swing.

July was very busy with final plans for the mission trip. Also, 275 of us spent two weeks in Rochester. This was a very wonderful experience and God blessed in so many ways. Plans are already in the making and dates set for next year (two weeks).

August was one of the most exciting times of the associational year. CPR (Challenging People to Renew) training took place at First Baptist, Shelby. 586 people from 49 of our churches were involved in all types of training. Let me commend the 26 pastors who came with their church leadership and led the way for training. The CPR event was one of the largest, if not the largest training event, in the history of the association for training. Thanks to each person who shared in this event. The cost averaged out to $4.53 per person attending. You cannot go to Ridgecrest for training for less than $5.00. The next CPR training will be in 1998.

September came and the youth "See You At The Pole" Rally was a big success. The prayer time around the pole found 910 youth praying for their peers, teachers, country and each other.

So, you can see this has been an exciting and eventful year. Reflecting always helps us to rethink and renew. I was also teaching mission studies, training of leaders, speaking, sharing and worshipping with many of our churches.

The Curriculum Resource Center continues to grow. The Sunday School Board almost weekly sends us more new materials. Spend some time browsing in the Curriculum Resource Center at the KMBA office.

Thanks for the opportunity to serve with you. You are very mission minded and eager to become better leaders in the churches of KMBA. I am grateful for each pastor and lcader. Please call me if I can be of any assistance to your church.

Respectfully submitted,
Bonnie Doughtie

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

The Executive Board has met in three regular meetings since the Annual Meeting during the past year. The space allotted for this report allows only a brief mention of some important issues to which attention was called at each of these meetings.

January 16 at Christopher Road:

1. The Evangelism committee reported that by the time of this meeting, Here's Hope training had already been held in our county and in Rochester, NY. Preparation is already underway for the mission trip to Rochester in the summer months.
2. Our Church Development Director reported the many ministries available through her part of the association's work, just to mention a few: Baptist Women's Day of Prayer, Here's Hope Prayer Retreat, "M" Night, and Associational Relgious Educators training and update in Nashville. She had also set up the Curriculum Resource Center at the association office which is available to everyone.
3. The association was introduced to the new CCM secretary, Teresa Davis, who has been a great asset to our work during the year.
4. The approval of the 501 (c) (3) non-profit status has placed our association in the advantageous position of being able to continue to receive funding from the Duke Power programs, to begin receiving assistance in the way of food supplies from the Metrolina Food Bank in Charlotte, and possibly from other organizations as well who contribute only to recognized non-profit entities.

April 24 at Mount Sinai:

1. Yasuaki Fukunaga was introduced; he is from Japan and is studying in our association for one year; he is exploring ideas to take back to Japan in the way of ministry. "Yasu" has been as inspiration to our association during the time he has been here. (He played the piano for the meeting of the Executive Board in July at David Baptist Church).
2. In the area of Student Ministries, it is hoped that BSU work can be established at Cleveland Community College during the year.
3. Among other things shared during our time together at this meeting were Vacation Bible School training, the success of Rescue '95, the mission trip to Rochester (292 folks planning to go), the upcoming Challenging People to Renew (CPR) training in August, the work of the Apostoloi team, and the success of our Missionaries-In-Residence program.

July 24 at David:

1. Several replacements were made for persons who had resigned from committees: Frances Cline, chairman of the Ordination Committee; Tom Beam, chairman of the Student Ministries Committee; and Jim Hope, chairman of the Finance Committee.
2. The many opportunities mentioned in this meeting were the continued urging to attend Challenging People to Renew (CPR) training, Hope Builders, Chemical Dependency Workshop, the work of the student summer worker with the Friday Lunch Program and the day camps for the developmentally disabled, and Christmas in July.
3. Several persons gave a short testimony concerning their experiences on the New York mission trip and Leland Kerr, director of missions, stated that the construction of the new associational office building there was well underway when the team left New York to come home. A goal of $16,000 was set to help construct the building there and as of the meeting time a total of $19,000 has been collected.

The scripture tells us to pray, to work, to give. Your association has expected and received from you in all these areas of life. We thank you.

Recca G. Bingham, Clerk/Treasurer

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

Challenge is probably the best description for what our associational Sunday School ministry set out to do in 1995. As we began the new year, your ASSISTeam took the challenge to enlarge its corp. We are very excited about our two new team members! Chip Sloan, pastor of First Baptist, Kings Mountain is serving as Pastor's Director on the team. He has proven to be an asset in giving us a pastor's perspective and much-needed ministerial support. He has also demonstrated how important Sunday School is to a pastor's ministry. Jerry Welch, pastor of Carpenter's Grove of Lawndale, has been a loyal team member of the ASSISTeam for years. His new role this year has been to enhance adults in our smaller churches throughout our association. With his heart and love for the smaller church, we are fortunate to have his skills for the vast majority of our churches. Both of these gentlemen are a wonderful blessing to our ASSISTeam.

Many times this year our other ASSISTeam members were called upon to give numerous consultations to our pastors and lay church leaders regarding the challenges facing their Sunday School roles. To these team members, I extend a very deep personal sense of gratitude for all their work. Thank you, ASSISTeam, for your commitment in our Sunday School ministries.

Due to the emphasis of our Here's Hope Revivals, our typical spring training events were pushed forward to January. Cold weather and severe storms challenged many Sunday School leaders to come out for this annual equipping time. Our heartfelt thanks goes out to those of you who attended these events in January at Zion or Second, Kings Mountain.

After the spring thaw and weeks of revival, our attention turned to Vacation Bible School preparation. Under the direction of Linda Ellis Carpenter, the association hosted an Early Bird Clinic at the associational office to preview "Windows on the World" on March 16. Regional training clinics for VBS workers were followed by this preview at Second, Kings Mountain on April 25 and at Eastside, Shelby on May 11. From these clinics, workers were challenged to open up spiritual windows for their churches to see and do missions in their world around them.

Yet the greatest obstacle faced by our associational Sunday School this year came in the form of the Challenging People to Renew training held at Shelby, First from August 28-31. Never before in recent history has there been such an undertaking on behalf of Sunday School. However, such an event is ideal for the many jobs that our Sunday School leaders perform in the churches. After much prayer and year-long publicity, this challenge superseded many of our goals and expectations! The level of success would not have been so great had it not been for a lady and a group of men. Bonnie Doughtie's tireless efforts to make this event so successful were very much noticed and appreciated. Thank you, Bonnie, for the countless hours you poured into this massive church-wide training project. Another word of thanks goes out to over twenty pastors in our association who supported this training by being present with the leaders in their churches. Thank you for modeling the importance of training in the lives of your church members.

This year has been full of challenges. As we prepare for 1996, our ASSISTeam is coordinating efforts to pursue even more opportunities for growth in Sunday School. As you will see in this year's book of minutes, we have added three new members to the ASSISTeam. We are looking forward to having Dr. Marvin Gobble, Dr. Jim Toole, and Rev. Tom Beam provide us with some additional support and expertise. If you would like to have one or all of the ASSISTeam members to consult with your Sunday School leaders next year, we are only a phone call away. We have been trained to assist you in your needs. Call upon us. We are ready to serve. We are also planning for more regional training events next year throughout all of our association. If your church would like to host a Sunday School event in 1996, please contact Bonnie Doughtie or me.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve Zimmerman, ASSISTeam Director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING REPORT

Discipleship has been defined as the ongoing process of spiritual growth and development in the lives of believers. As we consider this definition we realize that discipleship is not just something that happens for an hour on Sunday evening. It is involved in every aspect of the work of the church. Our challenge is to help people to be involved in opportunities of spiritual growth. Thus, we must learn to be flexible in the scheduling of classes and events in order to meet the spiritual needs of people in our fast-paced culture. There is a wide range of Discipleship Training curriculum that will meet the needs of any age or any group.

The two main events that we have done in the association are: "M" Night and Youth and Children's Bible Drill. On Monday, November 21, 1994 "M" Night was held at Calvary Baptist Church with Maurice Cooper from the Baptist State Convention as our speaker. There was approximately 80-90 in attendance.

On Sunday, April 9, 1995 the Youth and Children's Bible Drill was held at Elizabeth Baptist Church. There were 12 churches represented with 52 children and 3 youth participating. Thanks to Creola Pearson and Carolyn Gordon for coordinating this event.

WMU REPORT

"A TIME TO GROW" was the WMU theme this year and it was very appropriate as WMU began preparing for changes in the 1995-96 church year. We had very good attendance at our training sessions at Ridgecrest and Gardner-Webb University. There were 251 WMU leaders registered in our sessions at Challenging People to Renew (CPR). This really shows the dedication of the women in our association who are involved in mission education in our churches.

Baptist Women and Baptist Young Women (now to be combined and called Women on Mission), got off to a very good start this year with the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer in November. We also had very good attendance at our Spring meeting at Polkville and our salad supper at Eastside in May. In December we contributed money to the State WMU office to be used for the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh. The associational emphasis this year was Project Help: Hunger. All organizations participated to provide 5,538 cans of food and donated $1,547.85 for the associational food pantry or their own community food pantries.

The Acteens hosted a banquet for the international students and MK's at Gardner-Webb University. Eight Activators and three leaders also participated in the New York mission trip.

An open house was held for the Russell family, missionaries on furlough from Japan, who are living in the Pleasant Ridge house.

God has truly blessed our association with capable leaders and all our positions are filled. We are looking forward to a great year in 1995-96 as we "Risk the Journey."

Priscilla Wray, WMU Director

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

The men and boys of our Brotherhood are looking at several new ways to expand their ministry. To teach and involve our men and boys in missions is our primary goal.

Each year, our Baptist Men have an opportunity to be involved with the Cleveland County Fair Breakfast on the first Wednesday of the fair at 10:30 a.m. under the bingo tent. The Baptist Men of our churches prepare a hot breakfast for the fair workers. The Gideons are there to present the people with Bibles. After the meal, there is special music and a message presented by the Baptist Men. We extend to you a special invitation to join us and be a part of this ministry.

Much interest has been expressed about putting together a Disaster Recovery Team. This is in progress now and all churches will be notified prior to the next meeting. We hope the fine details will be worked out shortly and this ministry can be added as part of our Brotherhood Ministry.

As we look now to our young people, our R.A.s and Challengers, we are excited about these programs and the ministry they provide to our communities. We are pleased to announce the addition of a Challenger Director for the association as well as an existing R.A. Director. We feel this will benefit each church group by making these men available to assist you any way possible. Please contact the associational office if you would like one of these men to help you in your group.

As always, the R.A. Field Day was a lot of fun and fellowship. The boys competed against each other in many Field Day activities and in the car race. The basketball season went well with a good group of our young men participating. To enhance the sports program this year, a Sports Director has agreed to work with both R.A. and Challenger sports events.

Our leaders were very fortunate to have the opportunity to participate in a CPR Training (Challenging People to Renew) this year. It was an excellent training session for counselors that were experienced as well as for those counselors who are just beginning to work with the R.A.s and Challengers.

Please keep all of our Brotherhood, R.A. and Challenger leaders, and participants in your prayers. Thank you for your prayers, involvement, and support of our Brotherhood Program.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Stroup, Brotherhood Director

MUSIC MINISTRY REPORT

We have had another great year with our association Music Ministry in 1995. The Lord again gave us many opportunities to serve Him with this association of churches.

1) On March 6, 1995 a Choral Clinic was held at Westview Baptist Church, Shelby. Our guest Clinician was Neal Eller, Assistant Director of the Music Department for the Baptist State Convention in North Carolina. There were some 100 adult choir members from across the association in attendance as we sang four new selections from "Share Jesus Now." A short time of fellowship followed the Choral Clinic.

2) The Associational Youth choir presented "Salt and Light" on May 21 at First Baptist Church, Kings Mountain and at Beaver Dam Baptist Church, Lattimore on May 22. Nearly 100 youth participated in each of the two performances. The program was televised on Saturday, May 27 over WGGS-TV-16 from Greenville, South Carolina. This musical was also presented twice by the young people on their 1995 Mission Trip to Rochester, New York the week of July 7-15.

3) On September 25, 1995 our Association Church Music Workshops were held at Bethel Baptist Church in Shelby from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. Classes were offered in keyboards, reading music, youth choirs, handbells, creative worship, sound systems, and children's choirs. There were fifty-two in attendance that evening as we shared ideas on how to improve our music ministries in our churches. A time of refreshments and fellowship was included as a part of the schedule.

4) Our associational ministers of music get together each month for lunch and fellowship as we make plans for upcoming events through music ministry. One area that we encourage all ministers of music to participate is the annual associational meeting in October. Each year we form a choir and at least one other group such as instrumental, handbells, or ensembles.

The following is a schedule of events for 1996:

March 4 - Choral Clinic
May 19-20 - Associational Youth Choir Musical
September 23- Church Music Workshops
October 28 - KMBA Minister of Music Choir and Ensemble

HISTORIANS REPORT

I am in DEBT, deeply in debt to many, many people, happenings, ministers, the laity, and experience I have had the past 75 or more years in which I was aware of the association. I remember my parents, grandparents and members of old Double Springs who talked about the annual meeting before it was held and after it was over.

It was one of the big things in the life and work of our church.

It was information, inspiration and encouragement for the membership, especially the leaders. It was also a big social occasion as friends renewed acquaintance and made new friends. It was also a revival in religion, with all resolving to do more of the Lord's work next year.

No one could forget the long tables loaded with the best things the skillful housewives could prepare: fried chicken, beef, ham, cakes and pies galore. Not only the messengers and ministers, but many people came from town to indulge in the biggest meal of the year.

The first annual meeting I attended was at Lattimore in 1923, and the second at Double Springs in 1924. Brother John Suttle was moderator and Brother G.G. Page, editor of a paper in Kings Mountain, was clerk. I have attended most of the other sessions of the association except the years I was in medical school and in Europe and Vietnam, with the United States Medical Corps.

I hope to attend many more, especially the one in the year 2001, when the association will celebrate its 150th birthday, the Sesquicentennial date. Two churches, Shelby and Boiling Springs will celebrate their sesquicentennial in 1997, two years from now.

Double Springs celebrated its 150th date last year, with four special occasions including music, drama, testimonies, a new History room, planned by Ricky Toms and his committee.

A dozen other churches have or may yet celebrate their founding. They are:

Union, 110 years	Patterson Springs, 100 years
Pleasant Ridge, 80 years	Kings Mtn, Second, 80 years
Calvary, 60 years	Community, 50 years
Temple, 50 years	Elliott Memorial, 40 years
Lily Memorial, 40 years	Piedmont, 40 years
Immanuel, 20 years	Northside, 20 years

My first official work with the association was in 1934 and 1935. I had just finished college at Old Wake Forest in Wake County, and had gone to work with Sen. Lee B. Weathers at the then Cleveland Star (now Shelby Star), and also became leader of a new organization calle B.Y.P.U. (Baptist Young Peoples Union) at First Baptist Church in Shelby. Then I became associational leader for BYPU and introduced this organization to a number of rural churches. This movement later became Baptist Training Union (BTU), and now is called Discipleship Training, under the leadership of Miss Bonnie Doughtie of the KMBA staff and Rev. Glenn Walker, Associational Discipleship Training Supporter.

BYPU in 1935 had 2,033 members in some thirty-five churches .

Much of my inspiration and encouragement came from ministers and lay persons alike. First, of course, was Rev. John W. Suttle, who was my pastor for thirty-seven years and moderator of the KMBA for forty years, from 1913 to 1952. He also became president of the NC Baptist State Convention, the first rural pastor to do so in over 100 years.

I became his personal physician in his later years, and he spent his last days at our little hospital in Boiling Springs. Other ministers to whom I owe gratitude include:

Rev. D.F. Putnam, a church "planter" who helped in the formation of many churches here and in other associations. He asked me to be a member of a presbytery to found the church at Polkville in 1940. They celebrated their first half of a century five years ago. Like Paul the Apostle, I am indebted to both the Greeks and the barbarians, if the Greeks are our own home folks and the barbarians are folks in the secular world. I mention a few:

Rev. J.L. Jenkins, pastor at Boiling Springs, who also taught preachers how to preach at Fruitland Institute near Hendersonville. Rev. A.C. Irvin, who was so neat and immaculate with his white hair and Van Dyke beard and mustache; Thomas Dixon Senior and Junior for their contributions to leadership and literature; John R. Logan, who wrote a complete history of the Broad River and Kings Mountain Associations in the 19th century; Dr. P.L. Elliott of Gardner-Webb College; the five members of the G.P. Bostic family who collectively spent more than 400 years as missionaries in China; the moderators, clerks and other officers of the KMBA who made things happen in missions, finance, outreach, and the week to week, year to year work of their church and the association.

Dr. Zeno Wall and Rev. Horace Easom helped tie the knot when Emily Davis and I were married at New Hope fifty-one years ago last month.

Ray E. Brown was best man at that wedding. He was one of the top hospital administrators ever to come from this state and was the son of Rev. W.T. Brown of South Shelby.

Many lay persons, both men and women were an inspiration, such as G.V. (Governor) Hawkins, Walter Davis, C.C. Padgett, Mrs. Mae Cline Stroup, Mrs. John Wacaster, Miss Lalene Grigg, and many others.

Since I have had some responsibility, and certainly much interest in the affairs of this body, off and on, for sixty years, I feel free to make the following observations and requests:

The association will continue to exist and be useful for another 150 years, or more.

It will be the uniting force for all the churches and their members for kingdom work.

It will remain an independent body, but will co-operate with state, southwide and national bodies of the same faith and order. It will teach and train its members in Bible study, evangelism, and all that faith, love and hope implies.

It will set apart young men and women for full-time Christian service.

Its watchwords will be to preach, teach and heal until Jesus returns, as He has promised.

Someone, or several persons, will compile a complete history of the KMBA comparable to the John R. Logan book of 100 years ago which will reflect what this great association has done and can do in future years.

This is not "Goodbye" or "Au Revoir," but to bid you all "Godspeed" and to say I will gladly help your new historian any way I can. Thanks to all the clerks and church historians who have helped through the years. Special thanks to Mrs. Delores Hamrick, my associate in this office. You should see the History Room she and her committee have prepared at Poplar Springs.

W. Wyan Washburn, M.D. - KMBA Historain

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

The major emphasis of your Evangelism Committee this year was "HERE'S HOPE. SHARE JESUS NOW." Ministers training and local church Steering Committee training rallies were held. An associational prayer retreat was completed. Sixty days of soul-winning were attempted by many of our simultaneous harvest revivals. Only when we get to heaven will we know the true results of our efforts.

Our association assisted Rochester Baptist Association with their training for "HERE'S HOPE. SHARE JESUS NOW." A prayer retreat was also held there.

Your Evangelism Committee also assisted many local churches with their training and people searches for our simultaneous harvest revivals.

Once again we had a successful Evangelism Rally. All in attendance were blessed by Dr. Don Wilton from The First Baptist Church in Spartanburg, SC. Our next rally will be held January 29, 1996. The location and speaker will be announced at a later date. The Martins have already been secured to bless us with their music ministry.

A new evangelism effort was undertaken this year with the presentation of "The Masterpiece - A Toymakers Dream." We pray that the results of this effort will be impacting our community for many days to come. Attendance at this event was 1500 with forty-four decisions made.

PROMISE KEEPERS

The Promise Keepers men's movement continues to gain nationwide momentum. Many of our churches have men's groups meeting on a regular basis. Promise Keepers is not meant to replace any of our men's ministries, but to enhance them. Promise Keepers wants to work within our local churches. The main emphasis of Promise Keepers for 1996 is working with and training our pastors. A Promise Keepers Rally was held October 28, 1995 at Gardner-Webb University at Paul Porter Arena. The main speaker was Dr. Don Wilton from First Baptist, Spartanburg.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

During the past year, Christ Covenant Church has been under watchcare of our association. We have kept in close contact with them and they with us. It is good to know of their regular growth. Our committee recommends that Christ Covenant Church become a full member of our association.

Respectfully submitted,
Russell Fitts, chairman

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE

The major goal of the Christian Life Committee is to help all the churches of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association be more aware of the issues of the day that effect Christians living in the modern day. These issues of modern America should be of great concern to Christian people and they should strive to be involved in every way possible. Issues such as legalized gambling, abortion, pervasive pornography, violence on television and in society, illegal drug use and the decline of respect for human life should be of concern for all Christians as they think of some way to respond.

On May 4th the Christian Life Committee promoted and participated in the National Day of Prayer by sponsoring meetings at the city halls in our county. All these meetings were well attended as people met in our different communities and prayed for our nation and its leaders.

In the coming months we as a committee hope to be able to address the moral concerns of our society so as to make a difference for the cause of Christ and the Kingdom of God.

Respectfully submitted,
Jim Richardson, Chairman

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

For those who die in Christ, we can truthfully say: "Think of them as living on as dear in the love of there as in the love of here." The poem, AWAY, conveys this thought beautifully.

John Greenleaf Whittier's poem, "The Eternal Goodness" bears the thought of eternal life. It is as follows:

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

Within the maddening maze of things,
And tossed by storm and flood,
To one fixed trust my spirit clings;
I know that God is good!

I long for household voices gone,
For vanished smiles I long,
But God hath led my dear ones on,
And He can do no wrong.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

An old-fashioned preacher, who loved to journey through Eastern waters, put it this way: "We make too much of death. We do not dwell enough on the soul and its ongoing might. As one sails the Mediterranean, round whose shores much that is greatest in history has taken place (and it is beautiful), one shrinks from leaving it. Then too, the sea contracts toward the west; the shores gather together, in the way of the ongoing mariner the straits of Gibraltar are narrow; apparently they are impassable; they like the end of a person's life.

But as you advance, the illusion vanishes. The straits are wide and deep enough for the mightiest ship. On past the great rocks at the portal, your ship goes out into the vaster sea. From the horizon comes the sight of the vast Atlantic Ocean.

Such is a person's voyage on the sea of time. In the narrow passage we call death we naturally have fear. But there is room for the greatest soul to pass. Let him go forward in confidence and hope. Beyond is the Infinite and out into it the soul is moving to hear the call of loved ones, and to find the welcome of the Father's love and the light of His eternal home."

May we now stand for a few moments in loving remembrance of those who have gone from us.

Respectfully submitted,
J.C. Goare, chairman

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

This has been a good year for the Missions Committee of Kings Mountain Association. We have had four interesting meetings since the Annual Meeting in October 1994.

Every person has a right to know of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We are the ones who know this and must share His mission to all mankind. This is our primary purpose as we continue to strengthen the churches in the association and encourage the formation of new churches and missions.

We are seeing more people becoming "hands-on" missionaries as the opportunities become available for the association. Our partnership with the Greater Rochester Association was exciting as 275 people from 24 churches were involved in a two-week project of evangelism, Back-Yard Bible Clubs, construction and painting.

David Jackson, director of missions of Greater Rochester Association, came in April and challenged our churches to join the partnership and help them finance the building for their association office. We have surpassed the goal set by our association of $16,000. We are looking forward to another year of fellowship with them.

Our lives have been enriched as the missionaries on furlough have lived in our midst and spoken in many of our churches. They have broadened our missions education and awareness of peoples needs here and around the world. The co-operation between Gardner-Webb and the association with the Missionary-In-Residence program is successful. Yasuaki Fukunaga lived in the Elizabeth missionary residence a few months during the spring and summer of 1995. He is a young music and education minister from Tokyo, Japan who will be serving and observing in our association for one year. Now the Rob Hefner family, missionaries to Brazil, is living in the Elizabeth house. The James Russell family, missionaries to Japan, is living in the Pleasant Ridge missionary house, and Miss Elizabeth Oates, missionary to Brazil, is living in Boiling Springs.

As North Carolina looks forward to becoming a partner with South Africa we hope our association will become an active part during the next few years.

Star of Bethlehem, our Spanish speaking church, is having good attendance and hope they can secure a place of their own for worship in the near future.

Thank you for your involvement with missions this year and our prayer is that we will continue to be sensitive to the many needs of our churches and each member.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Lou Causby, Chairman

STAR OF BETHLEHEM HISPANIC MISSION REPORT

"Serve the Lord with gladness: Come before his presence with singing". Psalm 100:2

This year 1994-1995 was a wonderful time to serve the Lord. My wife and I have worked hard for the King of Nations and several people have taken Jesus as their personal Savior. We have had six baptisms and one wedding ceremony. At this time the church has 15 members.

We have had a beautiful time doing different things for our God. We have helped several families with clothes, food, furniture, dishes, etc. We have helped find houses to rent, connect power, phone, water, etc. We have also helped people in prison. We appreciate all the materials and spiritual support our association has given us.

During the summer months we enjoyed working with Jennifer Ollis who is the daughter of missionaries. Jennifer served as the Church and Community Ministries summer worker. We worked as a team in the Migrant Ministry. We distributed about sixty-three Bibles to the migrant workers and had some accept Jesus as Savior.

The summer was important, too, because we had two classes for our children, some of which accepted Jesus as Savior. Maria Espinales was leader for this ministry which was an exciting time with our Lord.

My thanks goes to Rev. Mickey Heyward, pastor of Christopher Road Baptist Church; Christopher Road Baptist Church; Rev. Leland Kerr, director of missions for the Kings Mountain Baptist Association; and to the others in the association for their support. My desire is to give the glory to Jesus for my time of ministry with Star of Bethlehem.

I believe our church is ready for new growth. At this time Star of Bethlehem is looking for a new pastor.

Pray for my family that God will open a new ministry in another place of service for us.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jose Espinales

STUDENT MINISTRY COMMITTEE REPORT

Our Student Ministry Committee is hard at work developing plans for the implementation of a Baptist Student Union at Cleveland Community College. We have been able to secure permission for the formation of such a group on the Campus from the Student Government Association. We have also secured a faculty sponsor to oversee the work of the Baptist Student Union. Our next task is to secure a Volunteer Director to coordinate activities and programs, as well as lay the groundwork for the new Baptist Student Union at CCC.

Our committee continues to support the Baptist Student Union at Gardner-Webb through pledging financial help to those students who may have difficulty securing funds to attend leadership conferences, fall conventions, retreats, etc. The committee works closely with the GWU Campus Minister in the distributing of these funds.

We are in close contact with the Campus Minister with regards to the commuter meals provided at lunch for commuter students who attend GWU. Anyone or any church interested in providing commuter meals for GWU students are encouraged to call the Campus Ministry office at GWU.

We encourage each church to take an active role in the ministry to your college students and those students at Gardner-Webb University and Cleveland Community College. Please pray for our students as they are searching for their place in this world.

Tom Beam, chairman

YOUTH MINISTRY REPORT

The Youth Ministry Committee sponsored four events over the last year. Much work went into planning and promoting these events, and the hard work of a dedicated committee really paid off.

On Saturday, January 7th, we held training for youth witnessing, using the Youth Roman Road Material's that were part of the Here's Hope campaign. Twenty-three were trained that day and encouraged to participate in the 60-days of Soul-Winning.

In February we held a ski-retreat with 197 in attendance, representing twelve churches. Four Bible studies, each concerning making right decisions, were led by a group of students from Appalachian State University. The Friday evening and Saturday morning program was held at Ridgecrest Conference Center, February 3rd and 4th. Believe it or not, it snowed too hard on Saturday to make it to the ski lodge!

March 17th and 18th were the dates for our fifth annual youth crusade, Rescue '95, held at Gardner-Webb University. On Friday night The Martins provided music and Rick Caldwell delivered the message. There were fifty-two decisions, seven of which were for salvation. On Saturday night Lisa Bevil performed. Although a formal invitation was not extended, Lisa did make herself available for one-on-one counseling after the concert. Several responded. Attendance was estimated at 450 each night.

Finally, on September 16th, Polkville Baptist hosted a Back-to-School cookout and See You at the Pole Rally. One-hundred-eighty attended on a dreary day, but had lots of fun and food, and enjoyed a concert by Carl Cartee. The event ended with students from the different schools represented having prayer meetings for their particular school.

It has been an honor to work for the Lord this year through association youth ministry. Let this committee know if it can be of service to your church's ministry to youth in any way.

Comments:

1. Salaries and housing/utilities allowances, plus the resultant changes in retirement have been increased by 3.5% for our ministerial staff (directors). Support staff salaries reflect a one time salary adjustment of approximately 20% to recognize the fifteen years of service by Margaret Lipscomb and Judy Franks and to compensate Teresa Davis according to the amount of work she does. The Church and Community Ministry Assistant's salary line item in the budget had received no increase in two years.

2. The Home Mission Board pays life insurance, disability insurance and all but $130 a month of medical insurance for our Church & Community Director. Our association pays the remaining portion as part of his salary.

3. The Church and Community Ministries Budget has been reduced in order to increase other budget areas. In addition to the budgeted amount, Church and Community Ministries receives donations from the Duke Power Foundation, The Dover Foundation, designated gifts from our churches and other churches in the area, the Home Mission Board and individual gifts.

4. In 1996, we will receive $3,940 toward the salary, expenses, etc. of our Church and Community Ministries Director. This amount is deducted from our total budget of $361,197 and adjusts our budget needs for 1996 to $357,257. This is a 1.1% increase over the 1995 budget.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KINGS MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

On November 7, 1851 the following churches from the Broad River Baptist Association met at Double Springs Baptist Church for the purpose of organizing a new association: Beaver Dam, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Broad River, Buffalo, Double Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Sinai, New Bethel, Pleasant Hill, Sandy Run, Zion, and Zoar.

The need for a new association resulted from geographical conditions. The boundary of the Broad River Association was so extensive that delegates were unable to attend the annual sessions due to swollen rivers and streams.

The name "Kings Mountain Association" was chosen because its boundary included the Kings Mountain battleground, a monument to be remembered by every patriot and lover of religious liberty.

In 1903, the association appointed a committee to establish and endow a denomination high school. In 1905, Boiling Springs was chosen as the most suitable site by a 15-member Board of Trustees. The Sandy Run Association was invited to join the Kings Mountain Association in establishing the school. In 1906, efforts and plans were begun to raise money for the school and in 1907, the first building was erected. The school opened on October 1, 1907 with 135 students. The first principal was Professor J.D. Huggins. The school later became known as Gardner-Webb College.

Directors of Missions who have served the association are:

Lewis E. Ludlum	1946-50
Tom W. Bray	1950-59
C.O. Greene	1959-73
Cline W. Borders	1973-91
Leland A. Kerr	1992-present

Interim Directors of Missions who have served are:

W.V. Tarlton	August 1, 1973 to October 31, 1973
Sam Snyder	May 1, 1991 to January 24, 1992

During the tenures of Rev. Ludlum and Rev. Bray, the association occupied an office in the First Baptist Church, Shelby. In 1949, the association voted to build a missionary home on Buffalo Street for the associational missionary. In 1959, the association voted that the missionary home be turned into an office building to provide space for the associational missionary, secretary, clerk/treasurer and to provide conference space for meetings. The home was sold in 1965 and the association rented office space in Shelby.

In April 1978, the association called Rev. Bob Davis as Church and Community Ministries Director. Rev. Davis served until August 1989 when he went on medical leave. Rev. Sam Snyder served as interim CCM Director from October 23, 1989 to September 30, 1990. In October 1990, the association called Rev. Charles Reed as the current CCM Director. In July 1994, the association called Rev. Bonnie Doughtie as their first Church Development Director.

Additional staff and growing ministries led the association to build an associational complex on Wyke Road in Shelby. In 1981 a dedication service and open house was held.

Currently the association is made up of 78 member churches and one mission with a total church membership of 28, 996. This total does not reflect four non-reporting churches whose membership would add approximately 250 to this total.
